

SWAROVSKI

MANAGER CORPORATE INTERNAL COMMUNICATION / EDITOR (F/M)

Please apply under swarovskigroup.com/careers or via reference no. 817658

What you can expect:

In this role, you will work as part of the editorial team for our internal communications department to source, compose and publish relevant, newsworthy business stories for Swarovski employees in print and online form.

As part of our editorial team, your tasks include but are not limited to:

- Independent research and cross-media editing of current topics throughout the company, composing articles to educate and inform employees
- Developing and copyediting content for the employee magazine, online platforms and other internal publications in German and English
- Managing approval lines, supervising translation, creation of layout, production and distribution
- Crafting statements and announcements
- Liaise with external agencies and service providers

What we expect:

You have a sense for a story as well as the ability to select, write and communicate information fitting to your target audience and an understanding of how internal communication helps to fulfil business needs.

Furthermore, your profile includes the following:

- A university degree in either Journalism, Communication, language studies and/or practical training in Journalism
- At least 3+ years' work experience in copywriting and/or Internal Communication
- Excellent editorial and writing skills in German and English

We offer:

A modern and attractive workplace in Wattens, Tyrol, located in one of the best-known holiday regions in Austria close to Innsbruck.

Due to legal reasons, we advise that the collectively agreed base annual salary for this position is at least € 41.286,- gross. Our actual salaries are market competitive, and take individual qualifications and experience into consideration.